

■ NonConstants

`NonConstants` is an option for `D` which gives a list of objects to be taken to depend implicitly on the differentiation variables.

If c does not appear in the list of `NonConstants`, then $D[c, x]$ is taken to be 0 unless c and x are identical expressions.

■ See page 412. ■ See also: `Dt`.