

■ Degree

`Degree` represents the number of degrees in one radian. It has a numerical value of $\frac{\pi}{180}$.

You can use `Degree` to convert from degrees to radians. ■ Example: `30 Degree` represents 30° . ■ See page 359.