

■ ZeroTest

`ZeroTest` is an option for `LinearSolve` and other linear algebra functions, which gives a function to be applied to combinations of matrix elements to determine whether or not they should be considered equal to zero.

For matrices with symbolic entries, `ZeroTest -> (Expand[#] == 0 &)` is often appropriate. ■ See page 451.